Plurimi welcomes new Managing Director, Richard Baker to lead Plurimi Structured Solutions

London, May 31st, 2019 — Plurimi has hired Richard Baker as a Managing Director to expand their institutional sales and structured solutions business.

Plurimi has today announced that it has hired Richard Baker as a Managing Director to expand the company's newly launched business unit, Plurimi Structured Solutions.

The platform has become increasingly flexible and comprehensive as Plurimi expands its operating model to fill gaps in the market, with a view to offering institutions the same bespoke services and investment solutions as is currently offered to private clients.

Richard spent the last 28 years at Morgan Stanley, where he held senior roles within private wealth management, fixed income sales, multi-asset class derivatives and equity derivative sales.

He has covered a very wide range of clients over various regions; his extensive knowledge across all asset classes and his relationships within the industry will be an invaluable asset to the firm. Richard will be leveraging his industry wide contacts and product expertise to offer innovative solutions and best pricing to a broad client base.

Ramzy Rasamny, CEO, commented, "Richard will be broadening our client base and offering his clients a wide variety of investment solutions, leveraging the firm's extensive platform and institutional connectivity. He also brings almost three decades of experience and insight in wealth and asset management, and I have no doubt that his extensive product knowledge, ideas and expertise will prove to be a great asset to Plurimi".

About Plurimi:

Plurimi was established in 2007 with the aim of preserving and enhancing the real value of clients' wealth, and operates from offices in London, Dubai and Gibraltar.
